Resolutions:

Purpose:

Powers and Duties:

S.R.C., Sec. 2-279. - Powers and duties.

(a) The human services advisory commission shall, with the assistance of City staff, advise the City Council on:

- (1) The existing human services provided by the City for the purpose of improving and modifying services.
- (2) The planning and development of human services to address the needs of the citizens of the City.
- (3) The coordination of private agencies, City services and other governmental agencies delivering human services in the City.
- (4) Providing opportunities for citizen involvement in the operation of City facilities where human services are provided, as well as citizen participation in human service programs and activities conducted in the City.
- (5) Such other human services issues and matters as the City Council may direct.

(b) The commission shall review and make recommendations to the City Council on applications for funding made by organizations seeking to provide housing and human services programs, activities or services to benefit the community and its residents. The funding sources for which the commission shall provide review and recommendations include, but are not limited to, those made available through: Community development block grants (CDBG), home investment partnerships program (HOME), Scottsdale Cares, Scottsdale Community Endowment Fund, Herbert R. Drinkwater Youth Services Fund and City general fund.

(c) The commission shall report to the City Council once a year on activities of the City's human services program.
