

Industrial Development Authority

Status: Active

Created: 6/4/1984

Ended:

Description: The Industrial Development Authority (IDA) was incorporated by the State in 1984, and is a legally independent political jurisdiction of the State. Its primary purpose is to issue tax-exempt bonds for certain types of private development (primarily smaller manufacturing facilities, and non-profit facilities) for the purpose of attracting new economic activity to the community. The IDA Board contracts for legal, financial, and City administrative advisors to assist it in evaluating projects. The IDA also charges bond recipients a small administrative fee to cover all these costs, and receives no City financial support.

Although the IDA is a separate political entity, the Scottsdale City Council does appoint the Board members, and reviews all final bonding recommendations brought forth by the IDA. The seven IDA members are appointed for six-year terms, and are eligible for re-appointment for an additional six years.

Special Qualifications: There are no formal requirements for IDA members' areas of technical expertise; however, given the nature of the work the IDA conducts, it is suggested that members be comfortable working with detailed financial pro forma, feasibility studies, and financial projections. Historically, most members have been bankers, accountants, financial advisors, CFOs, attorneys, etc.
