

Activity Number 39204
Altered Book Journal
Horizon Community Center

Transform a discarded book in to an artful journal, notebook or memory keeper using basic tools and supplies. The book's pages will be our canvas to apply paint, collage, and rubber stamping. We'll create pockets, tucks and add-ins to hold treasured items or write special thoughts. Books to alter will be provided as well as a materials kit to complete the project. $15 kit fee will be collected at the first class.

Supplies to bring to class:

- Scissors, ruler, pencil
- Liquid Glue (Aleene's Craft-Quick Dry Tacky Glue or Tombow Mono-Multi-Liquid Glue or Beacon Fabri-Tac suggested)
- Glue Stick – (UHU Brand or Scotch Craft Glue Stick suggested)
- 2-4 oz. Mod Podge Matte finish or Matte Gel Medium
- 2 oz. white matte acrylic paint
- Flat craft paint brush (1/2" or 3/4" suggested)
- Small round craft paint brush
- Old used credit or gift card
- 2-12x12 sheets scrapbook paper, not cardstock in colors and design of your choice for inside covers. 4-6 additional sheets-any size for collage.
- Fine point permanent marker (Sharpie or Micron 05 or .08 suggested)

Optional and not required Many will be available in materials kit and class:
Washi tape, ribbon, trim, lace, stencils, stickers, other flat embellishments
