Notes:

On August 4, 1986, the Charter Review Advisory Commission was created by Ordinance No. 1906 and the commission members were appointed. Councilman Deibel moved to appoint fourteen members. The motion was seconded by Councilman Walton and carried unanimously. Regarding membership, the ordinance reads, "The Commission shall be composed of fourteen (14) residents of the City, each of whom shall be selected by the City Council and each of whom shall maintain residency in the City of Scottsdale for the duration of the Commission's work." The commission was provided with guidelines, which included topics requesting their consideration. The Commission conducted 24 meetings over an eight-month period. All meetings were public, with two meetings dedicated to soliciting public input on the first draft of the Commission's report. The Commission held two meetings to gain an understanding of the organization's needs, one with the Mayor and Council and one with the City Manager.

The Charter Review Advisory Committee recommendations were presented to Council at the June 29, 1987 Work Study Session and can be viewed at <http://www.scottsdaleaz.gov/Asset35739.aspx>.

Fifteen questions were put before the voters on February 16, 1988. Twelve of the fifteen amendments were approved.
