Notes:

On September 20, 2005, the Council passed a motion to appoint a Citizens Code of Ethics Task Force to assist the Council in creating an effective and comprehensive code of ethics for the City of Scottsdale. Each council member appointed one member of the task force at the October 4, 2005 meeting.

On April 3, 2006, Art DeCabooter presented to Council the final report and recommendations of the task force. The Council accepted the task force report and approved it, as submitted, as the code of ethics for the City.

On May 2, 2006, the Council adopted Resolution No. 6879 adopting the Public Service Ethics Program For City Officials developed by the Scottsdale Citizens Code of Ethics Task Force; and, Ordinance No. 3675 amending the Scottsdale Revised Code to add a Code of Ethical Behavior for City Officers and making the Code of Ethical Behavior applicable to members of City boards and commissions.
