

Jeordie and Friends

Jeordie submerged into the Southwest music scene but a transplant from the east coast, Jeordie has a new way of approaching music and it's not ever set in stone. Being a daughter of 1960's musical artist Melanie ("Brand New Key," "Lay Down," "Beautiful People") she has performed on stage since age five. Her family life always revolved around music & while it may have been a very "gypsy" kind of lifestyle, she wouldn't have traded it for the world.

Singing along side her mother and seeing the magic of a worldwide fan base, Jeordie's goal has always been to share her own music with audiences everywhere. And with some words of wisdom from her mom ("Make music your life"), she set out to do just that.

Jeordie's music sends out positive messages and friendly advice, on a melodic platform. Occasionally she'll throw in an unsuspecting cover or two, and maybe even one of "mom's" songs, that she sang backup on for years. Jeordie is a true performer, so the best way to hear her music is live!
