

The Geetars

Playing country classics and originals, The Geetars formed in 2007. Drawing on the raw sounds of Johnny Cash, Hank Williams and Ernest Tubb, the band reaches into every corner of country music from Tejano to the Blues, from Honky Tonk to Cajun, always looking to add new sounds to the mix. Band members include Alvin "Al" Ladensack--lead guitar and mandolin, as well as songwriter; Danielle "Dani" Sweeney--lead vocals, tambourine and maracas; Aaron "Junior" Hazelett--acoustic & electric bass and sound engineer; and Salvador "Sal" Alcalá--rhythm guitar, bajo sexto, and squeeze box, as well as vocals.
