

Notice Under The Americans With Disabilities Act

In accordance with the requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”), the City of Scottsdale will not discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability in its services, programs, or activities.

Employment: City of Scottsdale does not discriminate on the basis of disability in its hiring or employment practices and complies with all regulations promulgated by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission under Title I of the ADA.

Effective Communication: City of Scottsdale will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities so they can participate equally in the City of Scottsdale programs, services, and activities, including qualified sign language interpreters, documents in Braille, and other ways of making information and communications accessible to people who have speech, hearing, or vision impairments.

Modifications to Policies and Procedures: City of Scottsdale will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services and activities. For example, individuals with service animals are welcomed in City of Scottsdale offices, even where pets are generally prohibited.

Anyone who requires an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or a modification of policies or procedures to participate in a program, service or activity of the City of Scottsdale, should contact the City Manager’s office/ADA coordinator – Sharon Cini or designee as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.

The ADA does not require the City of Scottsdale to take any action that would fundamentally alter the nature of its programs or services, or impose an undue financial or administrative burden.

Complaints that a program, service, or activity of City of Scottsdale is not accessible to persons with disabilities should be directed to the City Manager’s office/ADA coordinator – Sharon Cini or designee.
