Date: Wednesday, November 28, 2007

Time: 9:30 - 11 a.m.

Place: Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts
Virginia G. Piper Theater
7380 E 2nd St
Scottsdale, AZ 85251

Cox Communications and the Northeast Valley Coalition against Methamphetamine present: My Voice. My Choice: Just Once. This event is open to students, teachers and community members interested in viewing this powerful hour-long Cox7-AZ special about the dangers of methamphetamine use. The program includes the stories of three teens that used meth and the consequences of their addiction to this drug. It also includes interviews with local Arizona students and experts. Following the video presentation, students will have an opportunity to share their feedback on this program and the topic of meth use, as well as ask questions of panel members. The panel will consist of teens in recovery, law enforcement, a parent and prevention specialist.

High School classes are encouraged to attend this important event. Teachers and Administrators please call 480-312-3111 to reserve seats for your class(es). This event is also open to the public.

This event is sponsored by the Northeast Valley Coalition Against Methamphetamine, www.StopMethUse.com and Cox Communications, <http://www.cox.com/Arizona/cox7/>.
