TIME FOR REVIEW
Why do we exist? What is our purpose?

What are our main focus areas to achieve the mission?

What specific actions are needed to achieve the goals?

What specific projects are needed to achieve the objectives?

How will we know if we are achieving results?
Alignment Model

We achieve results that benefit customers by delivering services by conducting activities that use resources.
Types of performance measures

Exercise – Use Model to Identify Measures

- We achieve results
- That benefit customers
- By delivering services
- By conducting activities
- That use resources
How have you used performance measures to improve results?
ASSESS RESULTS
Targets express a specific level of performance the organization is aiming to achieve.
"Hello, this is Tech Support. May I close your ticket now?"
“The key is always to measure the right things.”

Patrick Lencioni
Target setting
Standards (also called “benchmarks”) express the minimum acceptable level of performance that is expected and achieved by other, high-performing organizations.
Benchmarking

- The art of evaluating by comparison with a standard for learning, improvement
The key question should be:

“Compared to what?”
What you don’t know

- You don’t know what you don’t know
- Have no explanation for variation
- Reasons why you got the results
- Reliability / validity of data
How networks can help

▪ Discussions to gain understanding
▪ Identify best practices and improve the services we provide ▪ Track progress and trends
▪ Improve accuracy

Talking about Performance
The performance dialogue process

INITIATE
Participants first seeing the data and attempting to understand and to identify signals

INTEGRATE
Sharing interpretations of the data with each other

SEARCH
Additional information and data gathering (if necessary) to find causes

DECIDE
Identify solutions and determine activities to put the chosen solution into practice
Tips for successful Results Review Sessions:

▪ Leadership sufficiently interested to support and participate in regular meetings

▪ A process that provides timely and accurate data on program outputs and outcomes

▪ Staff that can assist the leader in examining the data and provide advice on issues to address at the meetings
“People... operate with beliefs and biases. To the extent you can eliminate both and replace them with data, you gain a clear advantage.”

Michael Lewis | Moneyball: The Art of Winning an Unfair Game
How have you used data comparisons to improve results?
IMPROVE RESULTS
Start with your data and reports
“Goals make it absolutely clear where you will concentrate resources for results – the mark of an organization serious about success.”

Peter Drucker
What are you trying to achieve?  Who are you doing it for?

Questions that well-written goals answer

How will you contribute?  How will you measure progress?

Who is responsible?  When will you get there?
To enhance public safety for all Scottsdale residents, the Transportation Department will increase bike lane miles by 5% by June 30.

EXERCISE – WRITING IMPROVEMENT GOALS

What are you trying to achieve?

Who are you doing it for?

How will you contribute?

How will you measure progress?

Who is responsible?

When will you get there?

To demonstrate understanding of these concepts, you will write one improvement goal using this format and answering these questions in the next 10 minutes.
Human Resources Staffing Services Example

Simply better service …

High-performing organization and work culture

Achieve favorable timeliness rating of 75% for recruitment services

Meet 60 day target in 80% of recruitments (assumes 100 recruitments with 5 employees)

Meet 60 day target in 80% of assigned recruitments (20 recruitments per employee)
Citywide Goals

50,000 feet

Includes both Strategic Goals (General Plan) and Council Priorities (Strategic Plan)

- Defines a specific area of concentration
- Outcome-oriented (either quantitative or qualitative)
- Flexibility in manner of meeting goal
- Often pertinent to more than one area
- Something you influence, not totally control
• Restatement of strategic or operational goal specifically relating to department
• Oriented to measurable results or outcomes
• Usually within department’s area of control
• Goal achievement requires one or more SMART objectives and one or more initiatives
• Objectives usually address the result of a process -- improve, reduce, cut, increase
• Initiatives are managed as projects -- schedule milestones, cost, quality, completion date
Direct control. A goal entirely under employee’s control

Indirect control. A goal partially under employee’s control but requires working with others, either inside or outside the organization, to accomplish the goal

Influenceable, but not controllable. A goal not under the employee’s control, typically addressing a major issue, or potential issue, that may be influenced through coordinated efforts.

As responsibility increases, goals typically move from Direct, to Indirect, to Influenceable, but not controllable

What are nudges?

An improvement approach that uses information in a predictable way to influence behavior to a significant degree without the use of regulation or incentives.

Subject: Scottsdale Cares!

Dear neighbor,

Scottsdale Cares is an easy way for you to give back to your community. 100% of donations go to local non-profits that help Scottsdale residents in need.

Local charities needed more than $400,000 in funding to support Scottsdale residents, but Scottsdale Cares was only able to fund one-fourth of the need. This year, thousands of your neighbors have stepped up. But there’s more work to be done.

This is what $120 looks like.

If you don’t submit your Health Risk Assessment by Aug. 15, you’ll miss out on $120.

That’s the incentive each employee receives for completing it. If you have a spouse or partner on the city’s health plan, you earn another $120 if they do it, too.

Hi [NAME],

Are you up for a challenge?

I love being a police officer because no two days are the same. It’s challenging, but I feel like I’m my best self every day.

Scottsdale Police has changed its recruitment process, and we are looking for new officers to join our department. I hope you consider applying. If you thrive in a challenging environment, you’re just the kind of person we’re looking for.

Good luck!

What is the behavioral insights approach?

1. Use what we already know about human behavior to make local government programs and services better.
Make sure your communications pass the “flip test.”

Dear Driver,

Our records show that you have not yet paid a parking fine that you received in Louisville <> days ago.

The majority of drivers who receive a parking fine in Louisville pay it within 13 days. If you do not pay your fine, your debt will be referred to a third-party collection agency.

You owe: $<Amount>

To pay now, visit www.parkingticketpayment.com/louisville/

2. Test these approaches using randomized control trials to find out what really works.
“One of the dirty secrets of government is actually that we don’t know whether what we’re doing works a lot of the time.”

You need a tangible and impactful goal, with a clear, short-term outcome.

Example: Increase payment of parking fines by 10% within 30 days, as measured by the proportion who paid their fine within 30 days.
You need access to relevant data and a substantial sample size. Typically, evaluations have sample sizes in the thousands, and the department possesses and can share the raw data.
It’s not just about communicating better (although that does help)
It’s not a cure all, you’re likely to find processes need improvement
EXERCISE:

Policy Challenge Areas
a. Pay their utility bills on time
b. Donate more to charities
c. Save more money for retirement
d. Reduce household water use
e. Increase household recycling
f. Encourage more diverse people to apply for jobs

Idea Generation Instructions
1. Each person draws a card and reads it.
2. Take a minute to come up with ways in which the behavioral insight on the card could be applied to the policy challenge.
3. Share your ideas with the group.
4. Share your best ideas with the class

Process Mapping, Process Improvement and Process Management, Dan Madison
Symptoms of a broken process

• Customers are unhappy
• Some things just take too long
• It wasn’t done right the first time
• We throw people at the problem and it doesn’t get better
• High frustration factor
• Process spans departments and there is finger-pointing and blaming
• High variability in output or results

Process Mapping, Process Improvement and Process Management, Dan Madison
Begin the project by setting a goal for improvement and obtaining buy-in from key stakeholders.

Create the performance improvement project and team.

Document the existing process and performance measures.

Develop alternatives, evaluate the cost and benefits of alternatives and recommend alternatives that achieve desired results.

Follow-up to ensure goal was achieved and desired results were obtained.

Go back and re-assess the process, identifying and implementing additional improvements.

Five Key Design Principles

2. Work is performed where it makes the most sense.
3. Provide a single point of contact for customers and suppliers.
12. Push decision-making down to the lowest reasonable level.
20. Involve as few people as possible in performing a process.
21. Redesign the process first, and then automate it.

WRAP IT UP ALREADY!!!
Three reasons employees don’t like their jobs

Anonymity
We aren’t understood or appreciated for our unique contribution

Irrelevance
We don’t see how our work impacts the lives of others

Immeasurability
We don’t get a daily sense of measurable accomplishment
But, what if…
we understood our unique contribution, knew how our work impacted others
and got a daily sense of accomplishment?
Wouldn’t that make a difference?
