

Watercolor Supplies: Watercolor Floral Workshop

Instructor: Carrie Godwin

A fun 2 class workshop doing loose abstract and realistic florals. Students can either have their own floral subject or use the one I present and demo from. Workshop is for any level.

PAINTS: I use a mix of: Daniel Smith, Schmincke, Sennelier, American Journey and Winsor Newton.

 If you're new to watercolor "Winsor Newton" is a great start with price options.

Overall : There are a lot of options, just don't buy the cheapest or school grade please. (You'll soon regret it, I've seen many sad faces in classes. Same with brushes) Yet, you don't need the most expensive unless you choose so. We will discuss the high end paints.

BRUSHES: Assortment of watercolor brushes/sizes. Mop head, chisel, liner, rounds and dagger. Sable is most popular type. Synthetic works also and are for watercolor/acrylic. These are great and a great reference of shapes. Buy as a kit or buy as singles.

140 lbs. Watercolor Paper loose sheets, tablets and blocks. We will talk about the higher weights and you can decide if you want to purchase. You can buy loose sheets and I will show you how to make smaller by tearing NOT cutting.
