Personal Interest Disclosure Form

Pursuant to the City of Scottsdale Code of Ethical Behavior, all City officials (the Mayor, members of the City Council, and members of all City boards, commissions, committees, task forces, and other appointed advisory groups), before participating in their first meeting and before January 31 every year thereafter that they serve the City, must complete and submit a Personal Interest Disclosure Form to the City Clerk's Office. The purpose of the form is to help City officials by alerting and reminding them of their need to avoid participating in any manner on behalf of Scottsdale when a conflict arises between their official City duties and their personal interests (or the interests of their relatives).

Two definitions are very important because violating Arizona's conflicts of interests laws is a criminal offense and can lead to serious consequences.

1. Arizona law requires that if a public officer of a public agency, or her or his relative has a substantial interest in any contract, sale, purchase or service to the public agency, or an official decision of the public agency, then that officer "shall make known that interest in the official records of the public agency and shall refrain from voting upon or otherwise participating in any manner as an officer or employee" regarding that matter. (A.R.S. § 38-503). Substantial interest means a pecuniary (money/financial) or propriety (property) interest, direct or indirect, except certain specific, limited remote interests listed in the statute. (A.R.S. § 38-502). By listing "voting" and "otherwise participating in any manner" separately, the Legislature has made clear that if you have a conflict, then you must immediately refrain from taking any action in your official position; you may not do anything – vote, talk, discuss, write, wink, or nod – to try to influence the decision or any decision-makers.

2. The definition of relative is quite sweeping, and includes your "spouse, child, child's child [grandchildren], parent, grandparents, brother or sister [and step-brother or step-sister], and their spouses and the parent, brother, sister or child of a spouse." A.R.S. § 38-502(9).

If after you complete this form another substantial interest surfaces that was not anticipated, then you are obligated to immediately refrain from participating in the decision-making process and, within three business days, update this form to disclose the interest in the City Clerk's Office. If you have any questions, please contact the City Attorney's Office with as much lead time as possible.

1. Identify any upcoming decision or other matter you reasonably expect may come before your public body in which you or a relative may have a substantial interest. (Attach another page if more space is needed.)

2. Describe each substantial interest referred to above. (Attach another page if more space is needed.)

Statement of Disqualification

To avoid any possible conflict of interests, I will refrain from participating in any manner in the matter(s) identified above.
