Post-Conviction Relief

The purpose of a Post-Conviction proceeding is to determine if the outcome was erroneous, and to give the original trial court an opportunity to correct any irregularities that may have occurred at trial or sentencing. When filed within 90 days of entry of judgment, this notice is used to initiate proceedings to challenge a conviction after a guilty disposition has been rendered on a case. It provides a formal setting for the defendant to establish facts underlying a claim for relief when those facts have not been previously shown in court.

It is not the purpose of a Post-Conviction proceeding to provide a substitute for direct appeal, or to provide a second appeal. If there are allegations of trial error involving constitutional violations, the defendant must show the circumstances for not raising any constitutional violations on direct appeal. It is not to provide an alternative method of reviewing errors in trial conduct, nor an opportunity for a delayed petition for rehearing.

The Arizona Revised Statute explaining the scope of post-conviction relief is A.R.S. §13-4231 (www.azleg.gov). The rules explaining how to begin a post-conviction relief proceeding may be found in Arizona Rules of Criminal Procedure, Rule 32 (Post-Conviction Relief for Defendants Sentenced Following a Trial or a Contested Probation Violation Hearing) and Rule 33 (Post-Conviction Relief for Defendants Who Pled Guilty or No Contest, Who Admitted a Probation Violation, or Who Had an Automatic Probation Violation) (www.azcourts.gov). It is the filers responsibility to read and understand Rule 32 and Rule 33 and follow all applicable timelines and legal requirements.

The defendant must also submit a copy of the Post-Conviction Relief packet to the Prosecutor's Office. Their address is: City of Scottsdale Prosecutor's Office, 3700 N 75th St., Scottsdale, AZ 85251. Their fax number is (480) 312-7795.
