You deserve more say about the future of Scottsdale.

My Residents First campaign is about ensuring resident input is respected—especially on the pace of growth, the quality of development, and preserving the city’s character so we continue attracting businesses and visitors that grow the economy and keep taxes low.

Because experience matters, I am confident that I am “council-ready.”

Over the past 10 years, I served on the Planning Commission and chaired both the Transportation Commission and Building Advisory Board of Appeals. I studied and voted on the city’s most critical issues: apartment proposals, height/density, downtown parking, traffic, and many more.

My first-hand experience shows that development should reflect our city’s character, prioritize tourism, and, most importantly, be supported by residents. These considerations led me to vote in opposition to the Greenbelt-88 apartments and two major apartment proposals in the Shea Corridor.

I will respect residents’ priorities to keep neighborhoods safe, vigorously press short-term rental regulations to deal with harmful bad-actors, and manage the 14,000 apartments in the city’s pipeline. Part of managing the apartment boom is raising awareness of current drought conditions and reducing urban heat island-effects that can make the city environmentally unhealthy—particularly for older residents with respiratory issues.

I grew up in North Scottsdale, where I now work as a CPA. My wife and I are raising our sons in South Scottsdale. So I value the responsibility of helping shape the future of our great city.

Voters have been let down before by some candidates. We need to elect people to City Council who say what they mean—and be able to trust what they say.

I hope my experience, positive vision, and keeping my word to citizens make me worthy of your vote.

Thank you for reading my commitment to put residents first.

CANDIDATE FOR COUNCIL

Name: Pamela Carter
Education: Master's degree in Mass Communications and Biblical Theology
Occupation: President, Creative Genius Media, Business Owner, Media Consultant IBTV Media Host, Board of Directors for National Latina Latino Commission and Help 4Kidz

As a native Arizonan growing up in Scottsdale, my love for this city runs deep. I am a Christian and a Minister and embrace the importance of the Latina heritage of my maternal grandmother.

As a former Scottsdale business owner of the largest sports medicine and weight training facility in the nation, as well as Station Manager at KPAZ TV in Phoenix, I have been blessed to work and interact with hundreds of community leaders, government officials, professional athletes, celebrities, churches, pastors, families, children and people from all walks of life.

My diverse background in media, community outreach and business ownership, has prepared me extensively to be your next City Councilwoman.

My goals are:

Protect Scottsdale from urbanization and over development by voting against high-rise high-density mixed-use apartment complexes.

Reduce crime, homelessness, panhandling and keep our neighborhoods safe from human trafficking and drug cartels by fully funding and staffing our Police and First Responders.

Enforce current laws and noise ordinances for Short-term Rental Properties.

Promote Local Business, Tourism, Arts and Culture

Preserve Old Town, McDowell Sonoran Preserve, open land spaces, water resources and our residential neighborhoods.

To be fiscally responsible with the budget by keeping property taxes low and passing no unnecessary spending sprees.

I will be your vote on City Council and my top priority will be to protect your neighborhoods and families and to preserve the integrity of Scottsdale's rich heritage for future generations.

Loving people, family and keeping my faith are vital to our community like one of my hero's, Chaplain Winfield Scott, the founder of Scottsdale. He fought for our country and our city and was called "the Fighting Parson" so shall I fight for you, Scottsdale! (Numbers 13:30)
