City Organization

for Fiscal Year 2025/26

Meet Our Leadership

The voter-approved City Charter established the council-manager form of government which combines the strong political leadership of elected officials with the professional experience of an appointed local government manager.

Scottsdale City Council

The City Council consists of the mayor and six council members who are elected to represent the city at large and serve overlapping, four-year terms. These seven citizens oversee city government and set policies, approve programs, appropriate funds, enact laws, select charter officers and appoint residents to serve on advisory board. The mayor serves as the chair of the Scottsdale City Council and presides over its meetings, which are typically held on Tuesdays in the City Hall Kiva Forum located at 3939 N. Drinkwater Blvd. in Old Town Scottsdale.

Mayor Lisa Borowsky

Lisa Borowsky began her first term as mayor of Scottsdale in January 2025.

She is a lifelong Scottsdale resident and is dedicated to keeping Scottsdale a world-renowned tourist destination while prioritizing a community that residents are proud to call home.

Lisa attended Scottsdale public schools, obtained her undergraduate degree from Arizona State University and her J.D. at St. John's University School of Law in New York.

She returned home to begin her career in commercial litigation. Throughout her legal career, Lisa represented homeowners plagued by construction failures, recovering millions of dollars on their behalf.

Lisa's most important accomplishment, however, is raising her daughter here in Scottsdale. They enjoy spending time with their family, dogs and horses and playing tennis.

Lisa served on the Scottsdale City Council from 2008 to 2012, leading efforts for meaningful structural changes to the city budget process and securing a voter-approved amendment to the City Charter to strengthen fiscal accountability to taxpayers.

She grew up competing in quarter horse shows and still enjoys riding and spending time at Scottsdale's great restaurants, resorts and events.

She loves meeting and hearing from residents. Please reach out with ideas, concerns or to become a city volunteer.

Councilwoman
Jan Dubauskas

Jan Dubauskas began her term on the Scottsdale City Council in January 2025.

She has lived in Arizona since 1998 and been a Scottsdale resident for more than 10 years.

Jan has been practicing law for nearly 20 years. She served as general counsel and chief operating officer for a health insurance carrier and regularly appeared on national cable news as a health insurance expert.

Prior to that, she served as director of compliance for a life insurance company.

Jan has a bachelor's degree from the University of Oregon and a J.D. from Arizona State University's Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law.

She is a graduate of Scottsdale 101 Citizen Academy and the city's police and water citizen academies.

Jan and her husband have a blended family with five children ranging in age from 7-27. Their youngest daughters attend school in the Scottsdale Unified School District.

JDubauskas@ScottsdaleAZ.gov | 480-312-7402

Councilman
Barry Graham

Barry Graham began serving on the Scottsdale City Council in January 2023.

A Scottsdale native and Chaparral High School all-state athlete, Barry now lives in southern Scottsdale with his wife and their twin sons. He is a Certified Public Accountant with expertise in auditing and financial performance analysis for Arizona-based businesses.

Barry has long been active in the community—he is a Scottsdale Leadership graduate, former planning commissioner, and past chairman of both the Transportation Commission and Building Advisory Board of Appeals. A proud Scottsdale Fire Citizens' Academy alum, Barry also led the successful 2015 "Yes to Bonds" campaign that improved local public safety infrastructure.

Barry holds degrees in economics and international relations from Boston University and a master's in accounting from the University of Massachusetts, where he delivered the commencement address. He has served as a precinct committeeman since 2012 and twice as treasurer of his local legislative district.

BGraham@scottsdaleaz.gov | 480-312-7454

Adam Kwasman began his first term on the Scottsdale City Council in January 2025.

He serves as the president and managing attorney of Kwasman Law.

Adam previously served in the Arizona House of Representatives where he was vice chairman of the Ways & Means committee and sat on the Appropriations, Commerce and Joint-Legislative Budget committees. He earned the "Hero of the Taxpayer" award from Americans for Prosperity, the "Champion of Small Business" award by the National Federation of Independent Businesses, and the "Friend of the Family Award" by the Arizona Family Project.

Adam earned his bachelor's degree (cum laude) from Tulane University, his Master of Arts in Economics from George Mason University, and his J.D. from Arizona State University's Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law.

He draws inspiration from his wife and their four children. The Kwasmans are members of Congregation Beth Tefillah and Chabad of Arizona.

AKwasman@SwcottsdaleAZ.gov | 480-312-2374

Kathy Littlefield began her third term on the Scottsdale City Council in January 2023.

A Scottsdale native and Arizona State University graduate, she brings over 25 years of financial and management experience to the role. She co-founded and manages NetXpert Systems, Inc., a successful Scottsdale-based computer company.

Her professional background includes work in the City of Plano's Budget Office and several Scottsdale businesses and nonprofits.

Councilwoman Littlefield has long been active in civic life, serving in leadership roles with the Civitan Club, Special Olympics, North Scottsdale Little League, and her local legislative district. She's a proud member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Mayflower Society. Deeply committed to her community, she has supported youth programs and veterans' initiatives throughout her career.

She and her husband, former Councilman Bob Littlefield, have been married over 46 years and have two children and one grandchild.

KLittlefield@ScottsdaleAZ.gov | 480-312-7412

Maryann McAllen began her first term on the Scottsdale City Council in January 2025.

Becoming a city councilwoman has been a lifelong goal for Maryann who dreamed of serving her community since she was a student at Supai Elementary School.

Maryann has lived in Scottsdale for 60 years. She attended Coronado High School and is now the president of the Coronado Foundation for the Future, which funds scholarships for current students.

She earned a bachelor's degree in communication and nonprofit studies from Arizona State University. After graduation, she began a 14-year career in the city's Parks and Recreation and Human Services departments.

Maryann has been married to her husband for 32 years. They raised their four children in Scottsdale.

Maryann is a graduate of Scottsdale Leadership and the past chair of the Scottsdale Parks and Recreation Commission.

She is also a proud small business owner in Scottsdale.

MMcallen@ScottsdaleAZ.gov | 480-312-7456

Solange Whitehead began her second term on the Scottsdale City Council in January 2023.

An electrical engineer, businesswoman, and conservationist, she moved to Scottsdale in 1996 and quickly made it home. Councilwoman Whitehead is committed to community-first policymaking, bringing diverse stakeholders together to find solutions that protect public health, enhance quality of life, and use tax dollars wisely. She is known for her hands-on approach, regularly engaging with residents, businesses, and neighborhoods across Scottsdale.

A former preserve commissioner and "Conservationist of the Year" honoree, she helped pass the Protect Our Preserve initiative and supports sustainability through policy and action. She serves on the board of Waste Not, volunteers at the Granite Reef Senior Center, and championed the 3D printer lab at Scottsdale Community College.

Councilwoman Whitehead and her husband have three grown children and enjoy spending time outdoors.

Charter Officers

The City Council hires six officers to advise them on policy issues and run day-to-day operations. They are collectively known as the charter officers because their positions are spelled out in the City Charter, a voter-approved document which describes the organization and authority of the city government in Scottsdale. These positions are the city manager, city attorney, city auditor, city clerk, city treasurer/chief financial officer and presiding city judge. The city manager is the chief executive officer and is responsible for about 90 percent of the city's workforce.

Community Profile

for Fiscal Year 2025/26

Welcome to Scottsdale, Arizona

A World-Class Community

Scottsdale is a premier community nestled at the foot of the McDowell Mountains in the Valley of the Sun. Residents enjoy a high quality of life with attractive residential, recreational and shopping areas in a city that has earned its enviable reputation as an internationally recognized visitor destination and a thriving location for businesses of all kinds.

Scottsdale consistently ranks among the nation's best places to live, with top-rated schools, award-winning parks, low crime rates and a vibrant economy. Old Town Scottsdale is home to many restaurants, retail shops, art galleries and resort hotels. Scottsdale's McDowell Sonoran Preserve is a permanently protected Sonoran Desert habitat encompassing nearly 48 square miles. There are recreational opportunities for everyone with many golf courses, tennis and pickleball courts, parks, pools and hundreds of miles of bike paths and trails.

Scottsdale was founded by Army Chaplain Winfield Scott in 1888 but was not incorporated until 1951 when Scottsdale was a small community of 2,021 residents situated on about two square miles of land. Today, Scottsdale is home to more than 246,000 residents enjoying the rich diversity of experiences offered within the city's 185 square miles.

Capital Improvement Plan

for Fiscal Year 2025/26

Behind the Build

The Capital Improvement Plan (CIP) consists of the projects the city needs to build, repair, expand or maintain to serve the community. A five-year CIP is developed and updated annually, including budgeted funding sources. $974.2 million has been adopted in the FY 2025/26 CIP budget, which is a decrease from the prior year’s budget of $1.1 billion. These projects address City Council priorities and critical capital infrastructure needs in a variety of areas and are supported by different funding sources.
