

Multiuse Path Guidelines

*e-Bikes in Scottsdale

- ▶ Not all e-bikes are the same, maximum speed limits determine where it is safe and legal to ride an e-bike in Scottsdale.
- ▶ High-speed e-bikes, gas-powered bikes, motorcycles and ATV's are not allowed on paved paths.

|                                            | Manual Bike | e-bike20 MPH Max Speed Limit Pedal Assist and Throttle Operation | e-bike28 MPH Max Speed Limit Pedal Assist and Throttle Operation |
|--------------------------------------------|-------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| City Sidewalks                             | ✓           | ✓                                                                    | ✗                                                                    |
| Multiuse Path System                       | ✓           | ✓                                                                    | ✗                                                                    |
| Unpaved Trail Network                      | ✓           | ✗                                                                    | ✗                                                                    |
| On-street Bike Lanes and Designated Routes | ✓           | ✓                                                                    | ✓                                                                    |
| McDowell Sonoran Preserve                  | ✓           | ✗                                                                    | ✗                                                                    |
| Riders Under 16*                           | ✓           | ✓                                                                    | ✗                                                                    |

*Riders under 16 are banned from operating class 3 e-bikes (those capable of 21+ MPH) or electric motorcycles on city property including streets, sidewalks, parks, multiuse paths and trails.